Instructions

All of the items on the above checklist need to be in the PAL office by 3pm on May 1, 2009. No exceptions.

Fill out the form COMPLETELY in ink or on a typewriter. Neatness, brevity and legibility are desired. If more space is needed, use the back of the application.

The financial need response should be no more than 200 words, and written by your parent or guardian. This is an opportunity for them to explain how much they will be able to financially contribute to your education, and bring to our attention any additional financial burdens that are not otherwise addressed on the application. (Examples: death in the family, sick, elderly, or handicapped relatives living in the home, a parent that is incarcerated)

We expect that you write your essay in a clear, concise manner. There is not a page or word restriction, however a longer essay does not mean it will be a good essay. Answer the question completely, and to the best of your ability. A typed essay is preferred, however if it is hand written, it must be in ink, and legible.
